Colin's creative car wash costume

HOLYOKE – Three-year-old Colin Lumb declared his costume choice this Halloween would be a tribute to one of his favorite places – the Golden Nozzle Car Wash in Chicopee.

His decision didn't surprise his elementary school teacher mother, Erica, or father Kevin. In fact, the whole family decided to go along with the car wash theme: mom wore a car wash menu of services and dad went as a giant pine tree air freshener.

Colin's costume, a sweat suit covered in blue felt strips and pieces of bubble wrap depicting fake soapy bubbles, included a Golden Nozzle Car Wash logo, sponge and bucket that doubled as Colin's trick-or-treat bag. And despite the weather on Halloween, they made the neighborhood rounds with a few other families on the night of Oct. 31.
